TREATMENT AGREEMENT (Thereafter called Podiatrist)

With regard to podiatric care and services provided or to be provided, IT IS AGREED THAT THE ATTENDING PODIATRIST will provide podiatric care and services to the patient to the best of his skill and knowledge, which podiatric care in light of circumstance is possible and practical. The PATIENT will cooperate fully with the ATTENDING PODIATRIST, by obtaining such medications as are prescribed by following the instructions of the ATTENDING PODIATRIST by adhering to such treatment regimen or course of action as may be set forth and by paying all fees and charges in full as billed or provided by prior special arrangements. IT IS AGREED that because of differences in human constitution and response. it is in no way possible to warrant the outcome of such podiatric care and service. In the event of any controversy between the PATIENT or dependent (whether or not a minor) or the heirs-at-law or personal representative of a PATIENT as the case may be and the ATTENDING PODIATRIST (including his agents and employees) involving a claim in tort or contract, the same shall be submitted to litigation. All notices or other papers required to be served shall be served by United States mail. Claims for the fees and charges of the ATTENDING PODIATRIST may be sued on in any proper court. By our signatures, we consent to this agreement and each acknowledge receipt of a true copy thereof.

Provider Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY

Uses and disclosures of health information

We use health information about you for treatment (diagnostic treating, prescription, referral, etc.) to obtain payment (submit claims and/or encounters to billing services and/or clearinghouses, and/or collection agencies, etc.) for administrative purposes (reporting, utilization management, quality improvement and surveys, etc.) and to evaluate the quality of care you receive. We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

We may use or disclose identifiable health information about you without your authorization for several other reasons. Subject to certain requirements, we may give out health information without your authorization for public health purposes, for auditing purposes, for research studies, and for emergencies. We provide information when otherwise required by law, such as for law enforcement in specific circumstances. In any other situation, we will ask for your written authorization before using or disclosing any identifiable health information about you. If you choose to sign an authorization to disclose information, you can later revoke that authorization to stop any future uses and disclosures.

We may apply a change to our policies at any time. Before we make a significant change in our policies, we will change out notice and post the new notice in [the waiting area and in each examination room.] You can also request a copy of our notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, contact the person listed below.

Individual rights

You have the right to look at, get a copy of our receive electronically protected health information about you that we use to make decisions about you. If you request copies, we will charge you $15-25 for each medical record. You also have the right to receive a list of instances where we have disclosed protected health information about you for reasons other than treatment, payment or related administrative purposes. If you believe that information in your record is incorrect or if important information is missing, you have the right to request in writing that we amend the existing information.

You may request in writing that we restrict and/or not use or disclose your information for treatment, payment and administrative purposes except when specifically authorized by you, when required by law, or in emergency circumstances. We will consider your request but are not legally required to agree to it.
